RUSH COUNTY TO PRACTICE THRIFT

Patronage of Thrift Stamps and Savings Accounts Indicates Great Saving For 1918

MANY ENTER SAVING CLUBS

Thrift Stamps Receipts For First Month Will Probably Mount to $2,000, in Sales

The sale of Thrift stamps and the starts made by the banking clubs in the two local banks, which handle Christmas savings funds, indicate that Rush county people are going to save with more care than ever during the year 1918. Postmaster G. P. Hunt predicts that the first months sales of the government stamps will total $2,000 and the banks report that as many persons as before are starting in the banking clubs. This is in spite of the liberal manner in which Rush county citizens have pledged their money to patriotic purposes.

The Peoples' Loan and Trust Company reports that all indications are for having a club as large as last year and that between 1200 and 1500 persons have already started their accounts. The clubs will be open until the last of the year so of course all have not joined that intend to do so. People are taking out about the same size accounts as last year, this bank reports.

One hundred and fifty per cent more money has been deposited in the savings accounts at the Rush county National bank than had been at this time last year. Indications are, however, that practically the same number of persons will join as did last year, this being about 800, but the majority are starting larger accounts.

Although definite reports on the sale of Thrift stamps can not be completed at the postoffice because a number of stamps have been given out to offices over the county, it is probable that the sales will total the prediction made by Postmaster Hunt when the stamps were received and that $2,000 worth will be sold in Rush county during the first month. The sales increase every day. A number of persons, about 15 in fact, have bought their full allotment, that is $824 worth of stamps now which in 1923 with the interest will be worth $1,000.

The ruling that no person can buy more than one hundred dollars worth of the stamps, which this month will be sold for $82.40 and next month for $82.52, has been put into effect strictly. Persons who wish to buy $1,000 worth of stamps are asked to divide the purchase and buy them during ten days. The stamps proved to be a popular Christmas gift and many persons gave them instead of money.

Because of the Christmas rush of mailing, the sale of stamps has not been pushed by the local postoffice in the past, as it will be in the future, Postmaster Hunt stated today. Within a short time, the campaign will start, when the sale of Thrift stamps will be urged through the schools, by short talks on their value in the moving picture shows, and by urging their sale through the city and rural route carriers. The stamps now may be purchased from any city or rural carrier.

It was thought by some that the Thrift stamps might take the place with some people of the Saving fund but evidently they have not. The instructions received at the postoffice concerning the stamps urge persons to continue with their savings accounts and to buy the stamps in addition.

Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 28.—George Batholomew was under arrest today in connection with the murder of his wife at Milford. The couple had been married only a year.

EXPLOSION WRECKED PLANT

Plot Suspected as Cause of Explosion at Hammond

(By United Press.)

Hammond, Ind., Dec. 28.—The Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company plant here was wrecked by an explosion early today.

Levers controlling the gas supply were found to be regulated so as to allow the gas to flow in the blast pipes. Officials suspect a plot. Windows were shattered and the building was demolished by the explosion. No one was injured.

JACKSONIAN IS NOW A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

Discontinues Publication as Daily Thursday Night After Being in Field 23 Years

NEXT ISSUE THURSDAY JAN. 3.

With the issue of last night the Jacksonian, the democratic newspaper here, discontinued as a daily and hereafter will be issued as a weekly newspaper. The first issue of the new weekly will appear next Thursday when, according to a statement in last night's paper, will appear a detailed announcement of the future policy of the newspaper.

The Jacksonian has been a daily paper for almost twenty-three years. It was the first daily ever published in Rushville and later the Daily Republican entered the field. Previous to that time, it had been a semi-weekly and weekly.

The paper was bought last May by R. W. Noyer of Galion, Ohio, from Louis Holtzman, who purchased the paper at receiver's sale. He made extensive improvements in the equipment and has been continuing a daily up to this time. No paper was issued on Wednesday and at that time it was hinted the Jacksonian would be discontinued as a daily.

GRANTS HALF FARE INCREASES ASKED

Service Commission Decision in Union Traction Case Indicates Action in Others

I. & C. CASE SOON TO BE HEARD

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 28.—The Indiana public service commission today granted about one-half of the increased fares asked by the Union Traction company operating in many cities of central Indiana.

Straight five cent fares for the cities of Munroe, Anderson, Elwood and Marion were provided for. This is the first decision on petitions for increased fares asked by interurban companies in the state and indicates what will be done with requests for increases by other interurban lines.

The commission fixed the following charges: mileage books, two cents a mile; commutation tickets, one and a half cents a mile; school tickets, one and one-fifth.

The case of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, which asks a straight increase of half a cent a mile on all its interurban lines, is set for hearing early next month.

A mistake was made in announcing T. F. M. Gardner, Jr., as having an agricultural claim. In making up its records for the day, the board stamped opposite Gardner's name an agricultural claim being forwarded, but instead it should have been that he had been ordered to report for examination next Monday.

The number of registrants returning questionnaires filled out is less than the number sent out each day so that the surplus is piling up day by day. Though the legal advisory board is busy assisting registrants, probably more could be assisted if they would visit the board at their earliest convenience. The army selection board demonstrated yesterday that it must have a reason if registrants are allowed more than the legal period of seven days for filling out questionnaires, by placing two men in class one for failing to return questionnaires in the prescribed time. No more were put in class one for that reason yesterday.

The board has classified forty-six more registrants, four in class one, nine in class two, one in class three, twenty-eight in class four and four in class five. This makes a total of 255 classified up to the time the board went into session this morning.

RAIL OPERATION GOES INTO EFFECT

McAdoo Places War Board of Private Railroad Executives in Temporary Charge.

CONFERENCE IS HELD TODAY

War Freight Will Have The Right-of-Way Over All Other Classes of Freight.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 28.—The American government's plan to operate railroads came into existence at noon today. War freight will have the right-of-way. Simultaneously the railroad war board held a conference with Director McAdoo regarding the details of transportation. This was the only procedure that marked the most important step taken since the mobilization of an army for the war.

McAdoo placed the war board of private railroad executives in temporary charge of operation of the nation's railroads, it was announced following a conference between McAdoo and the board.

The board, McAdoo stated, pledged him its hearty support and agreed to continue operations until he put into effect his organization.

Problems of operation were chiefly discussed, he said, and no decision of any kind was reported.

McAdoo's first economy stroke under the new regime was announced—elimination of the war board's publicity board. The three employees were notified of their dismissal. The Creel committee on public information will handle the railroad publicity.

RAILROAD MOVE PUT U.S. ON WAR FOOTING

All American Industries Are Under Federal War Control as Result of Action

McADOO LAYING FOUNDATION

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 28.—All industries of America today are virtually under federal war control as a result of President Wilson's proclamation for the government operation of all the railroads. The head of the commerce enterprises working here and the representatives of labor agree that the nation is now on a war footing under the centralized guidance of President Wilson and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

McAdoo was working to lay the foundation of the stupendous organization called before him. The railroads officials assured him of their co-operation and assistance. The first act of McAdoo, preliminary to actually starting the management of the roads, January 1, was to select a board of directors, including a representative of all of the agencies now engaged in the transportation work here. Drastic regulations to supply and accommodate only those enterprises, which are vital to war work, are anticipated.

TAKE BANDITS AND BOOTY

(By United Press.)

Candelaria, Texas, Dec. 28.—The American cavalry patrol which pursued Mexican bandit raiders into Mexico today is enroute to Marfa, Texas, with several bandit prisoners and practically all of the booty taken in raids on ranches, according to word received here today.

THOUSANDS ARE HOMELESS

Earthquake Shocks Continue at Guatemala City Today.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 28.—Thousands in Guatemala City are without shelter while earthquake shocks continue, declared cables to the state department. Danger of pestilence was seen from the fact that the water situation is serious and sanitary conditions are correspondingly affected. The American Red Cross is aiding. The foreign colony including the Americans are safe.

LIGHTLESS NIGHT IS OBSERVED HERE

Window and Street Sign Display Are Cut Out in Accordance With Recent Request

MOST PLACES CLOSE AT 6 P. M.

The first real "lightless night" was observed in Rushville last night in accordance with the request of the federal fuel administration that street display lights be cut out Thursday and Sunday nights and that window display lights be restricted as much as possible. Thursday night of last week the request was not observed to such a degree as last night because stores were open for the holiday trade. Last night, however, show window lights were all out and all street signs were dark.

The fuel administration request that as many places of business as possible close at six o'clock during the winter is being observed. Drug stores are closing at eight o'clock and practically all other places of business except cigar stores, pool rooms, moving picture theaters, candy kitchens and the bowling alley are closing at six o'clock. The drug stores will also close at noon Sunday for the day.

STROKE SUFFERED CHRISTMAS FATAL

William Frame, 76, Retired Farmer, Expires After Short Illness With Paralysis

THREE NIECES AND DAUGHTER

William Frame, aged 76, a well known resident of Rush county for many years, died yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the Misses Mary and Nora Sleeth, where he had lived for some time. The death was caused by a stroke of paralysis which he suffered on Christmas day. The stroke at that time was the second that Mr. Frame had, having suffered one exactly one year before. Since the first stroke he had not been in good health.

At one time, Mr. Frame was a farmer but for some years he had been retired from that occupation. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Nellie Frame, and three nieces, the Misses Mary and Nora Sleeth of New York City, who arrived this morning. The funeral services will be held at the residence of the Misses Sleeth in West First street tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock with burial in East Hill cemetery.

The new consolidated school in the Webb neighborhood, four and one-half miles southwest of the city, was dedicated yesterday afternoon with exercises which were attended by about 175 people. The entire day was given over to the dedication and a basket dinner was served at noon. Appropriate talks were made by W. R. Jinnett, County Superintendent C. M. George and Mr. Shook, architect of the firm of McGuire and Shook, which put up the building.

The building cost $44,000 and is strictly modern in all of its equipment as well as being fireproof. The most up-to-date plans have been worked out in the school. The schools of four districts, one, nine, ten and eleven, have been combined in this school and the pupils from these districts will attend the new school beginning next Monday.

The original plan was to have a township high school in connection with the district school, but because the building was not completed for the opening of the term, the high school will not be started there until next fall. Beginning Monday, grade pupils of the districts named will receive instruction there.

All provisions have been made for the high school which will be started next fall and the equipment necessary for home economics, manual training and the latest prescribed courses of study are in readiness for the pupils. The teachers in the school at present are Miss Beatrice Bagley, Miss Edna Butler and Norman Nordmeyer.

GERMANY SAYS ALLIES ARE STOPPING PEACE

Persuading Russia With Statement Pledging They Will Ask For Indemnities

IF ENGLAND DO THE SAME

(By United Press)

London, Dec. 28.—Germany is trying to persuade the Russian people that only the allies now stand in the way of peace. The peace terms announced by Count Czernin, Austria-Hungarian prime minister pledge the Central Powers adherent to "no annexation, no indemnities;" but only on the conditions that England and all of her allies would agree on the same policies and the stipulation that Russia must secure the allies' adoption of all of the German principles. Austria-Hungary's minister's suggestion of withdrawal of all troops from the occupied regions, which could be arranged in a peace treaty, was a cause for failure to agree before it was signed.

The return of all of Germany's colonies, which were taken by force and the Russian demand for evacuation of the occupied territory corresponds to Germany's intentions. No mention was made in providing for any payment by Germany for the ravaging of Belgium, France and Poland. No mention also of any guarantee of a world's peace. Both of these points being absolutely essential in the view of the allies. It was pointed out that Germany would insist on the return of her allied colonies and would hold fast to Alsace-Lorraine.

Private Lyndale of Camp Shelby, Miss., wishes to thank the women of the Red Cross in the northern division of Noble township for their generous Xmas box. He says he is convinced now more than ever that Rush county has the most liberal women and the best cooks.

Dr. A. A. Mull has contributed $8 toward the school children's Red Cross membership fund, in addition to the list that was published Wednesday.

Amusements

That extremely energetic and versatile young man, Douglas Fairbanks, added another feather of glory to his cap of fame when he consented to embody his laugh and live philosophy into a photoplay story. "Down to Earth" is the result of his newest effort as an author coming to the Princess tonight. The Arclight star has written a book, several scenarios and countless articles in addition to his other achievements and judging from advance reports, his newest offering means more than ever the wonderful optimism which has contributed so largely to the success of this famous American actor.

In addition to this, a Burton Holmes Travel picture will be shown "Catching and Canning Oregon Salmon" showing beautiful scenes as well as being an educational picture. On Saturday, Little Mary McAllister appears in "Pants" a favorite film with children and "The Runaway Colt," a farce comedy, will be shown.

The second episode of "The Fighting Trail" appears at the Gem theatre this evening in addition to a good film "Jerry's Mother-in-law" in which Clara Kimball Young and Sidney Drew take the leading roles.

Norma Talmadge has the lead in "Just Show Folks," a clever feature particularly adapted to Miss Talmadge. Tomorrow's program includes another adventure of Stingaree and a comedy "Social Pirates."

ing, fifty-six of whom—about one-fifth are in class one.

Six more registrants placed in class two by the local board have taken appeals to the district board. Most of them are married men without children, whose only dependents are their wives. It apparently has been the policy of the local board to place men with wives and no children to support in class two and married men with children in class four.

Thirty-one were placed in class four on dependency claims who have additional industrial or agricultural claims, and must be acted on by the district board. There is also one other case where an agricultural claim is the only one. The registrant is placed in class one and the case sent on to the higher board.

WOMEN'S WOES
Rushville Women Are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Lizzie Borem, 830 W. Ninth St., Rushville, says: "About six years ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. What bothered me the worst was my kidneys acting irregularly and they showed in a number of ways they were badly disordered. Doctors said I had gravel. I heard how someone else had been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills so I got a box at Wolcott's Drug Store. They helped me at once, and after I had taken four boxes, the pain had left and I felt ever so much better."

Price 60, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Borem had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.—(Adv.)

Freeze or Starve, Which?

If one were asked to choose between starving and freezing, the question as to which horn of the dilemma to pick out would be hard to decide. But the Indiana fuel administration would be interested in the choice because during the last two weeks, the most convincing evidence has developed, showing that there is not now and probably will not be at any time during the winter, enough coal to keep all the homes in Indiana heated in comfort and at the same time keep all the manufacturing plants in the state running at capacity.

When manufacturing plants begin to close down, and several already have closed, the weekly pay check fails to show up and when the weekly pay check fails to show up there is apt to be the keenest distress in thousands of families. We have seen the results of such a thing here.

Marriage Licenses
Issued 50 Years Ago

Amanda Hunt and William Beard were granted a marriage license 50 years ago today and were married on January 2, 1868 by John S. Legg, justice of peace.

Fifty years ago today Susan Hunt and Henry Neff were married by Benjamin Nixon, justice of the peace, having been granted a license two days previously.

with two factories closed down for two weeks already.

A frank statement of the fuel situation, therefore, shows but three lines of action; Indiana homes may continue to have their normal supply of coal and thereby force many industries to close down; industries may be kept running, thereby forcing many families to inconveniences; both home and industrial consumption of coal may be reduced to the minimum of bare necessities and the maximum use be made of wood as fuel, and while both the homes and the factories may be temporarily embarrassed, there will be no actual suffering.

One of these three courses of action must be followed, and Evans Woollen, federal fuel administrator for Indiana, is making the most earnest plea for the third line of action. Whether or not the factories of the state can be kept running and thereby maintain the flow of money into thousands of homes where the loss of one week's pay would be a calamity, depends upon the co-operation of the general public in conservation of coal. If persons continue to heat seven rooms when five will meet their needs, if churches insist on keeping open house as they would in normal times, if factories fail to make the most determined effort to get the maximum service out of the minimum of coal, if schools do not conserve the fuel supply and places of amusement fail to observe the most rigid economies, and, finally, if the farmers throughout the state do not cease their demand for coal and go to burning wood, there is bound to be the keenest hardships before the winter is over. This is certain. There is no way to avoid it.

The one source of helpful economy lies in the return to wood for fuel in all districts where wood is available. The farmer who can burn wood and who, at this time, drives to town for coal, unintentionally perhaps, is doing the entire country an injury. Not only should farmers burn wood, but they should cut a surplus and sell it in the nearest town.

In several Indiana counties the citizens, under the leadership of the county fuel administration, are organizing companies to handle wood. There is profit in this activity and at the same time it is a patriotic undertaking which very directly helps out the entire state. The fuel administration says that if Indiana will double its use of wood as fuel there will be enough coal saved to enable the state to get by the winter without general interruption to business activities.

To date the federal fuel administration for Indiana has taken care of the home and utility demands for coal. Factories and business concerns have been forced to shift for themselves. It has now come to the place where the demands of the fuel administration for home and utility coal are so heavy that manufacturing concerns can not get coal. Every person who will give the situation a little thought will see what may happen when factories are shutting down, men are out of work and without money when the cost of living is higher than ever before.

Save coal! Burn wood! is the admonition of the fuel administration. Don't attempt to buy enough coal at one time to meet your entire winter requirements. The situation is grave. There is no power this side of Kingdom Come that can meet the situation without the fullest co-operation of all the people. The fuel administration of Indiana asks every citizen to do his bit toward cutting down the consumption of coal to the end that no one will have to make the choice between freezing and hunger.

RUSH COUNTY TO PRACTICE THRIFT

Patronage of Thrift Stamps and Savings Accounts Indicates Great Saving For 1918

MANY ENTER SAVING CLUBS

Thrift Stamps Receipts For First Month Will Probably Mount to $2,000, in Sales

The sale of Thrift stamps and the starts made by the banking clubs in the two local banks, which handle Christmas savings funds, indicate that Rush county people are going to save with more care than ever during the year 1918. Postmaster G. P. Hunt predicts that the first months sales of the government stamps will total $2,000 and the banks report that as many persons as before are starting in the banking clubs. This is in spite of the liberal manner in which Rush county citizens have pledged their money to patriotic purposes.

The Peoples' Loan and Trust Company reports that all indications are for having a club as large as last year and that between 1200 and 1500 persons have already started their accounts. The clubs will be open until the last of the year so of course all have not joined that intend to do so. People are taking out about the same size accounts as last year, this bank reports.

One hundred and fifty per cent more money has been deposited in the savings accounts at the Rush County National bank than had been at this time last year. Indications are, however, that practically the same number of persons will join as did last year, this being about 800, but the majority are starting larger accounts.

Although definite reports on the sale of Thrift stamps can not be completed at the postoffice because a number of stamps have been given out to offices over the county, it is probable that the sales will total the prediction made by Postmaster Hunt when the stamps were received and that $2,000 worth will be sold in Rush county during the first month. The sales increase every day. A number of persons, about 15 in fact, have bought their full allotment, that is $824 worth of stamps now which in 1923 with the interest will be worth $1,000.

The ruling that no person can buy more than one hundred dollars worth of the stamps, which this month will be sold for $82.40 and next month for $82.52, has been put into effect strictly. Persons who wish to buy $1,000 worth of stamps are asked to divide the purchase and buy them during ten days. The stamps proved to be a popular Christmas gift and many persons gave them instead of money.

Because of the Christmas rush of mailing, the sale of stamps has not been pushed by the local postoffice in the past, as it will be in the future, Postmaster Hunt stated today. Within a short time, the campaign will start, when the sale of Thrift stamps will be urged through the schools, by short talks on their value in the moving picture shows, and by urging their sale through the city and rural route carriers. The stamps now may be purchased from any city or rural carrier.

It was thought by some that the Thrift stamps might take the place with some people of the Saving fund but evidently they have not. The instructions received at the postoffice concerning the stamps urge persons to continue with their savings accounts and to buy the stamps in addition.

Plot Suspected as Cause of Explosion at Hammond

(By United Press) Hammond, Ind., Dec. 28.—The Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company plant here was wrecked by an explosion early today.

JACKSONIAN IS NOW A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

NEXT ISSUE THURSDAY JAN. 3.

With the issue of last night the Jacksonian, the democratic newspaper here, discontinued as a daily and hereafter will be issued as a weekly newspaper. The first issue of the new weekly will appear next Thursday when, according to a statement in last night's paper, will appear a detailed announcement of the future policy of the newspaper.

The Jacksonian has been a daily paper for almost twenty-three years. It was the first daily ever published in Rushville and later the Daily Republican entered the field. Previous to that time, it had been a semi-weekly and weekly.

The paper was bought last May by R. W. Noyer of Galion, Ohio, from Louis Holtzman, who purchased the paper at receiver's sale. He made extensive improvements in the equipment and has been continuing a daily up to this time. No paper was issued on Wednesday and at that time it was hinted the Jacksonian would be discontinued as a daily.

GRANTS HALF FARE INCREASES ASKED

Service Commission Decision in Union Traction Case Indicates Action in Others

I. & C. CASE SOON TO BE HEARD

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 28.—The Indiana public service commission today granted about one-half of the increased fares asked by the Union Traction company operating in many cities of central Indiana. Straight five cent fares for the cities of Muncie, Anderson, Elwood and Marion were provided for. This is the first decision on petitions for increased fares asked by interurban companies in the state and indicates what will be done with requests for increases by other interurban lines.

The commission fixed the following charges: mileage books, two cents a mile; commutation tickets, one and a half cents a mile; school tickets, one and one-fifth.

The case of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, which asks a straight increase of half a cent a mile on all its interurban lines, is set for hearing early next month.

A mistake was made in announcing T. F. M. Gardner, Jr., as having an agricultural claim. In making up its records for the day, the board stamped opposite Gardner's name an agricultural claim being forwarded, but instead it should have been that he had been ordered in report for examination next Monday.

The number of registrants returning questionnaires filled out is less than the number sent out each day so that the surplus is piling up day by day. Though the legal advisory board is busy assisting registrants, probably more could be assisted if they would visit the board at their earliest convenience. The army selection board demonstrated yesterday that it must have a reason if registrants are allowed more than the legal period of seven days for filling out questionnaires, by placing two men in class one for failing to return questionnaires in the prescribed time. No more were put in class one for that reason yesterday.

The board has classified forty-six more registrants, four in class one, nine in class two, one in class three, twenty-eight in class four and four in class five. This makes a total of 255 classified up to the time the board went into session this morning.

BANKS EXPLAIN DELAY IN BONDS

Rush on Engraving Department at Washington Prevented Bonds From Being Made.

SOME ALREADY DELIVERED

Statements Sent to Banks That The Cities Are Being Taken in Alphabetical Order.

Statements have been received by the local banks explaining the unavoidable delay in the delivery of the Liberty bonds. The congestion at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington is given as the cause for the delay. Now, however, the bonds are beginning to arrive at the banks and the remainder of the first Liberty Loan bonds is expected at any time. The delay is easily understood when the statistics are given that more than twenty million pieces are required to make the deliveries of bonds to the first and second Liberty Loan subscribers, including the 4% bonds of the first loan converted.

The preparation of the bonds has come at a time when the facilities of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing are heavily taxed because of the increased demands of currency, revenue stamps, postage stamps, war saving certificate stamps and other government documents. Every effort is being made by the government to meet the situation and the banks are asked to persuade their subscribers to continue the exercise of patience under the circumstances.

The Rushville National Bank has received and distributed some of the bonds of the first issue that were converted into the four per cent bonds. The Peoples' Bank has also received a supply of the first Liberty Loan bonds. The other banks are expecting the first Liberty Loan bonds at any time. Persons who subscribed to the first loan and took the 3% per cent bonds have received theirs some time ago. The principal delay has been in those that were converted into the four per cent bonds.

When the bonds were first being made they were distributed as they were called for. However, the demand was so great that the system was changed and the cities were supplied alphabetically. As B is near the end of the alphabet, Rushville will probably not receive the bonds until quite late in comparison with other cities.

As to the second Liberty Loan, they are also being distributed to cities alphabetically. The first three letters in the alphabet are disposed of except as to the $100 bonds and seventy-five thousand pieces are needed to fill the back orders. All bonds which were paid in full during the campaign have been delivered to the Federal Reserve bank at Chicago, government agent for the seventh district of which Rushville is a part, although they have not reached the local banks as yet. Deliveries are now being made with respect to bonds paid in full November 15, where the allotment notice was promptly returned and properly executed.

CONFERENCE IS HELD TODAY

War Freight Will Have The Right-of-Way Over All Other Classes of Freight.

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 28.—The American government's plan to operate railroads came into existence at noon today. War freight will have the right-of-way. Simultaneously the railroad war board held a conference with Director McAdoo regarding the details of transportation. This was the only procedure that marked the most important step taken since the mobilization of an army for the war.

McAdoo placed the war board of private railroad executives in temporary charge of operation of the nation's railroads, it was announced following a conference between McAdoo and the board.

The board, McAdoo stated, pledged him its hearty support and agreed to continue operations until he put into effect his organization.

Problems of operation were chiefly discussed, he said, and no decision of any kind was reported.

McAdoo's first economy stroke under the new regime was announced—elimination of the war board's publicity board. The three employees were notified of their dismissal. The Creel committee on public information will handle the railroad publicity.

WOMEN'S WOES
Rushville Women Are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Lizzie Borem, 840 W. Ninth St., Rushville, says: "About six years ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. What bothered me the worst was my kidneys acting irregularly and they showed in a number of ways they were badly disordered. Doctors said I had gravel. I heard how someone else had been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills so I got a box at Woleott's Drug Store. They helped me at once, and after I had taken four boxes, the pain had left and I felt ever so much better."

AMERICA ALWAYS FIRST

Freeze or Starve, Which?

If one were asked to choose between starving and freezing, the question as to which horn of the dilemma to pick out would be hard to decide. But the Indiana fuel administration would be interested in the choice because during the last two weeks, the most convincing evidence has developed, showing that there is not now and probably will not be at any time during the winter, enough coal to keep all the homes in Indiana heated in comfort and at the same time keep all the manufacturing plants in the state running at capacity.

When manufacturing plants begin to close down, and several already have closed, the weekly pay check fails to show up and when the weekly pay check fails to show up there is apt to be the keenest distress in thousands of families. We have seen the results of such a thing here.

+ Marriage Licenses
+ Issued 50 Years Ago

Amanda Hunt and William Beard were granted a marriage license 50 years ago today and were married on January 2, 1868 by John S. Legg, justice of peace.

Fifty years ago today Susan Hunt and Henry Neff were married by Benjamin Nixon, justice of the peace, having been granted a license two days previously.

with two factories closed down for two weeks already.

A frank statement of the fuel situation, therefore, shows but three lines of action; Indiana homes may continue to have their normal supply of coal and thereby force many industries to close down; industries may be kept running, thereby forcing many families to inconveniences; both home and industrial consumption of coal may be reduced to the minimum of bare necessities and the maximum use be made of wood as fuel, and while both the homes and the factories may be temporarily embarrassed, there will be no actual suffering.

One of these three courses of action must be followed, and Evans Woollen, federal fuel administrator for Indiana, is making the most earnest plea for the third line of action. Whether or not the factories of the state can be kept running and thereby maintain the flow of money into thousands of homes where the loss of one week's pay would be a calamity, depends upon the co-operation of the general public in conservation of coal. If persons continue to heat seven rooms when five will meet their needs; if churches insist on keeping open house as they would in normal times, if factories fail to make the most determined effort to get the maximum service out of the minimum of coal, if schools do not conserve the fuel supply and places of amusement fail to observe the most rigid economies, and, finally, if the farmers throughout the state do not cease their demand for coal and go to burning wood, there is bound to be the keenest hardships before the winter is over. This is certain. There is no way to avoid it.

When manufacturing plants begin to close down, and several already have closed, the weekly pay check fails to show up and when the weekly pay check fails to show up there is apt to be the keenest distress in thousands of families. We have seen the results of such a thing here.

The one source of help in the economy lies in the return to wood for fuel in all districts where wood is available. The farmer who can burn wood and who, at this time, drives to town for coal, unintentionally perhaps, is doing the entire country an injury. Not only should farmers burn wood, but they should cut a surplus and sell it in the nearest town.

In several Indiana counties the citizens, under the leadership of the county fuel administration, are organizing companies to handle wood. There is profit in this activity and at the same time it is a patriotic undertaking which very directly helps out the entire state. The fuel administration says that if Indiana will double its use of wood as fuel there will be enough coal saved to enable the state to get by the winter without general interruption to business activities.

To date the federal fuel administration for Indiana has taken care of the home and utility demands for coal. Factories and business concerns have been forced to shift for themselves. It has now come to the place where the demands of the fuel administration for home and utility coal are so heavy that manufacturing concerns can not get coal. Every person who will give the situation a little thought will see what may happen when factories are shutting down, men are out of work and without money when the cost of living is higher than ever before.

Save coal! Burn wood! is the admonition of the fuel administration. Don't attempt to buy enough coal at one time to meet your entire winter requirements. The situation is grave. There is no power this side of Kingdom Come that can meet the situation without the fullest co-operation of all the people. The fuel administration of Indiana asks every citizen to do his bit toward cutting down the consumption of coal to the end that no one will have to make the choice between freezing and hunger.

A number of local Tri Kappas attended the state luncheon given at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis today at 12:30 o'clock. The principal business meeting which followed the luncheon was the disposition of the fund which Tri Kappa had for the convention in the spring. The convention was called off on account of the war and the money which would have been expended on the convention will be used for some patriotic purposes. Among the members of the local chapter who attended the luncheon are Mrs. Hubert Innis, Mrs. Jack Knecht, the Misses Helen and Esther Black, Marjorie Smith, Mary Williams, Clorenne Amos, and Mrs. Roy Harrold, Mrs. Neff Ashworth, and Mrs. Earl Moore.

Another holiday affair for the local chapter will be the watch party to be given at the home of the Misses Bertha and Jessie Monjar on New Year's eve. An oyster stew will be given at the opening feature of the watch party. * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Powell delightfully entertained a company of relatives and friends with a twelve o'clock dinner Christmas day honoring Sergeant Charles Cortelyou, who is visiting friends here from Camp Shelby, Miss. The rooms of the home were artistically decorated with patriotic colors and the table was beautiful with holly and mistletoe. The dinner was served in seven faultless courses. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Powell were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cortelyou and family, parents of Sergeant Cortelyou of Connersville, Mr. and Mrs. Will Angles son George, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Angles and son Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Whitton and family. * * *

Will Inlow entertained with a well appointed dinner party today at his home in North Perkins street, when the guests were his seven nephews and nieces. The tastefully laid table was centered with a bowl of yellow flowers and a color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in all of the appointments of the elegant course dinner. Pretty yellow and white place cards marked places for the following guests: Dr. Deprez Inlow of the Cook Hospital of Chicago, Dr. Fred Inlow of Chicago University, Edgar Kaufman of Indianaapolis, Miss Alecia and Herbert Inlow of Manilla and Miss Lucy and Wallace Inlow of Homer. * * *

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Reeve, daughter of Mrs. Ferd Reiderford, and Will Carter, son of Mrs. Victoria Carter, which took place in Covington, Ky., on October 7 was announced at a pretty luncheon given by the bride at her home in North Main street yesterday afternoon. The announcement was made in a very clever way when the red and green ribbons which extended from the place cards to the center basket filled, with red roses, were pulled and the one that Miss Lois Reeve had was attached to a marriage license in the basket of roses.

The place cards bore a bride and bride groom in an automobile and everything else carried out the clever idea of the surprise. Four delicious courses were served to the guests during the luncheon, at the end of which the announcement came.

Before the last course was served, the hostess had apparently been called into a neighboring house to the phone and from there she left for the short wedding trip to Indianapolis. Until this time, the whole affair had been kept a complete secret.

The remainder of the afternoon was pleasantly spent in the home which was decorated with Christmas appointments throughout. Holly wreaths and bouquets of red carnations carried out the color scheme of red and green. The guests for the delightful affair were the Misses Wanda Wyatt, Marian Scholl, Gladys Wallace, Marian Sparks, Lois Reeve, Leah Flint, Ramona Ebanks, Miriam Rutherford, Gladys Beabout and Mrs. Francis Moor of Chicago, Mrs. Paul Boehm, Mrs. Mull Wallace, Mrs. Allen Blackridge, Mrs. Walter Capp. * * *

Over thirty friends of Miss Leila Wilson and Lois Rees went to the home of Mr. Rees northeast of here last evening and surprised them, the occasion being their eighteenth birthdays. A dainty luncheon was served soon after their arrival. The table was centered with a large wedding bell and a color scheme of red and white was carried out to the last detail in the appointments of the luncheon. Tiny cupids were given the guests as favors. A large bowl of red and white carnations also adorned the pretty table. Adorned the center of the table. After supper the guests were entertained with games and a contest, "A Trip to the Mountains," in which the Misses Ruth Laughlin and Freda Custer were the winners. A wedding march was played by Miss Mand Bell and Miss Leila Wilson and Parker Willey ascended the stairs and announced their approaching wedding, which will take place next Sunday, December 30. Congratulations were extended to the couple and many gifts presented them. After the wedding which will take place in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Willey will make their home on a farm south of this city. The guests enjoying the delightful affair were the Misses Lonnie Hinchman, Georgia Hunt, Ava Ging, Freda Custer, Marjory Hunt, Beatrice Austin, Ruth Laughlin, Ruth Martin, Katherine Laughlin, Bonnie Phillips, Leila Wilson, Laverne Bishop, Mand Bell, and Byron Hinchman, Earl Winkler, Aaron Laughlin, Casel Bell, Lawrence Stoops, Wendell Ging, Dale Peters, Carl Garrett, Ed Bell, Loyd Vickery, Samuel Kirkpatrick, Vern Bell, Richard McManus, Clifford Patton, John Looney and Parker Willey. * * *

Mrs. William Billings will entertain all of the members of the Research club and their husbands this evening at her home in Milroy. At six o'clock, an elegant course dinner will be served. The decorations for the table will be carried out in the colors of the club, green and white, and a large bowl of carnations, an emblem of the club, will center the prettily laid table, where covers will be marked for about fifty guests. After supper a musical and literary program will be carried out. * * *

A delightful holiday meeting of the Grand Club was held yesterday afternoon when Mrs. A. L. Riggs entertained the club members at her home in North Perkins street. Following the bridge games, the hostess served a delicious dinner. For the service of it, the dining table was centered with a pretty bouquet. Mrs. Sarah Henley of Chicago was among the guests. The club will meet again in two weeks. * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyers entertained, with a six o'clock dinner last evening at their home in West Third street, when the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Morton Conner and daughter Dorothy. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O'Brien, Mrs. James Simon, Miss Nora Meyers and John Geerin of Camp Taylor, Ky. During the evening violin music was provided for the amusement of the guests. * * *

Most of the members of the S. E. T. club and one guest, Mrs. George Becker of Richmond, were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Helen Pierson at her home in West Third street. Most of the afternoon was spent over knitting and the hostess served refreshments. In two weeks Mrs. Lee Pyle will be hostess to the club. * * *

Miss Vira Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Clark, and Lieutenant Hale Pearson son of William Pearson, were quietly married last evening by the Rev. C. S. Black at the Methodist parsonage. Lieutenant and Mrs. Pearson leave tomorrow for Hattiesburg, Miss., where the former is stationed at Camp Shelby. * * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett entertained at dinner last evening at their home in North Main street when their guests were Mrs. Horace Ingram of Chicago, Mrs. George Hogsett, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hogsett and family and Miss Nancy Hogsett. * * *

This Christmas Time

Will be rich in the memory of each person who has extended its cheer to the lives of others.

During the year ahead of us the same spirit should find frequent expression toward those who are fighting our battles at the front and also toward those who fight the battles of life at home.

In the days to come our hands should find willing service for those who have gone as our representatives, who stand in our place and stand to preserve the blessings we so greatly prize and enjoy.

As we cultivate this spirit of helpfulness, we not only spread cheer and comfort, but we weld and strengthen the bonds of our National life.
